These rules are known and cited as the "San Diego Superior Court Rules" and are at all times supplementary to and subject to statutes, the California Rules of Court, and any rules adopted by the Judicial Council and are to be construed and applied so they do not conflict with such rules and statutes. Division, section, rule, and paragraph headings do not affect the scope, meaning, or intent of the provisions of these rules. If any part of a rule is held invalid, all valid parts that are severable from the invalid parts remain in effect. If a rule is held invalid in one or more of its applications, the rule remains in effect in all valid applications that are severable from the invalid applications.

(Eff. 1/1/98, Rev. 1/1/2000)

CHAPTER 2
GENERAL RULES

Rule 1.6

Policy Against Bias

It is the policy of the court to provide an environment free of all types of bias, prejudice, any kind of discrimination, or unfair practice. All judges, commissioners, referees, court officers, and court attachés shall perform their duties in a manner calculated to prevent any such conduct, either by court personnel or by those appearing in court in any capacity. This rule does not preclude legitimate comment or advocacy when race, gender, religion, national origin, disability, age, sexual orientation, social economy, or other similar factors are issues in court proceedings.

Any violation of this policy by any judge, commissioner, referee, court officer, or court attaché should be reported directly to the presiding judge or executive officer, or assistant executive officer of the division in which the alleged violation occurred. Any violation of this policy by persons appearing in court should be reported directly to the judicial officer before whom the proceedings were conducted.

(Eff. 1/1/98, Rev. 1/1/2000; Renumbered 7/1/2001)

Rule 1.7

Departments and Divisions of the Court

A. The court consists of all the departments and divisions wherever they may be located and whatever their function. These include all facilities located within the North County, East County, South County, and Central Divisions.

B. In addition to the trial departments of each division, there shall be a presiding or supervising department and other specialized departments as determined by the presiding judge and executive committee. The hours of operation shall be published in the professional and legal newspapers in the county and posted in each courthouse. No advertising shall be displayed in any courtroom or any adjacent areas of the court.

Appendix I-A is added to incorporate the above changes.

C. Except as otherwise provided in these rules, venue for all cases shall be according to the zip codes found in Appendix I-A. The presiding judge shall from time to time designate a supervising judge at each location who will be responsible for the administrative and calendar operations of the departments located there and for conducting proceedings in those cases that are filed there.

Appendix I-A is added to incorporate the above changes.

D. The following matters must be filed in the Central Division:

1. Matters now heard on the mental health calendar of the court, including all proceedings under the Lanterman-Petris-Short Act, except permanent conservatorships;

2. Delinquency matters now heard by the juvenile division;

3. Appeals to the appellate division for the Central, East County and South County division only;

4. The return and filing of indictments,

5. False claims actions; and

6. Construction defect cases. If a case primarily involves construction defect claims, the case shall be filed in the Hall of Justice, and will be assigned to a judge designated to hear construction defect cases.

E. Transfer of Actions

Any action or proceeding may, for good cause shown on motion of a party, and after hearing, be transferred to a different division. Motions and hearings on such transfer must be heard in the court where the action or proceeding is pending. In ruling on such a motion the judge presiding may, in his or her discretion, deny transfer of a case which has been filed in a court not authorized by subsection C above. The presiding judge, supervising judge, or designee (including any judge assigned for all purposes to a case), may order a transfer at any time without motion or hearing in their discretion for reasons stated in the order to transfer. Although transfer will ordinarily be ordered in civil matters at the time of the case management conference or in criminal matters at the time of arraignment, such transfer may be ordered at any time at the discretion of any of the judges set forth above. If the order to transfer is made without a hearing or at a time other than a hearing, any party shall be entitled to be heard concerning such transfer if a request for hearing is made to the judge who ordered the transfer within 10 days after notice of transfer.

(Eff. 1/1/98, Rev. 1/1/99, Rev. 1/1/2001; Renumbered 7/1/2001; Rev. 1/1/2002; Rev. 1/1/2003; Revised 7/1/2003, Rev. 1/1/2004)

CHAPTER 3 EXECUTIVE OFFICER OF THE COURT

Rule 1.8

Appointment, Powers, and Duties

A majority of the judges of the court may appoint a court executive officer pursuant to section 69898 of the Government Code who shall also act as jury commissioner and clerk of the court. Any reference in these rules, the California Rules of Court, or statutes, to the executive officer, clerk of the court, or jury commissioner refers to the executive officer who functions in each of these capacities.

The powers, duties, and responsibilities transferred from the county clerk to the court executive officer pursuant to this rule shall include all of those performed by the county clerk with respect to court actions, proceedings, and records.

The county clerk is hereby relieved of any obligation imposed by law with respect to the above powers, duties, and responsibilities. This rule does not transfer from said county clerk to the court executive officer obligations in reference to the issuance of marriage licenses or the filing of fictitious business names.

(Eff. 1/1/98 Rev. 1/1/2000; Renumbered 7/1/2001)

CHAPTER 4 MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Rule 1.9

Records

Nothing on file in any court shall be taken out of the clerk's office or the civil business office unless it is going to a courtroom or chambers of a judge.

(Eff. 1/1/98; Renumbered 7/1/2001)

Rule 1.10

Exhibits

Evidence admitted in any case before any court shall be only those items required in the case and shall be retained by the court for the minimum time required by law, unless good cause is shown to retain the evidence. No exhibit shall be received by any court if the exhibit poses a security, storage, safety, or health problem.

Exhibits which will not be received include but are not limited to:

1. Any type of explosive powder;

2. Explosive chemicals, toluene, ethane;
3. Explosive devices, such as grenades or pipe bombs;
4. Flammable liquids such as gasoline, kerosene, lighter fluid, paint thinner, ethyl-ether;
5. Canisters containing tear gas, mace;
6. Rags which have been soaked with flammable liquids;
7. Liquid drugs such as phencyclidine (PCP), methamphetamine, corrosive liquids, pyrrolidine, morpholine, or piperidine; and
8. Samples of any bodily fluids, liquid or dried.

No exhibits shall be accepted by the exhibits custodian unless:

1. All containers with liquid substances are clearly marked and identified as to type and amount;
2. All containers of controlled substances are clearly marked, identified, weighed, and sealed;
3. All cash is specifically identified, whether individually or packaged, as to the total amount and number of each denomination;
4. All firearms are secured by a nylon tie or trigger guard; and
5. All hypodermic needles are placed in containers which will safeguard personnel.

Unless otherwise ordered, unidentified liquids, containers, controlled substances, or other suspect substances shall be returned to the party offering them.

All exhibits must be individually tagged with the proper exhibit tag. Each exhibit tag must be properly completed and securely attached to the exhibit. Any exhibit improperly tagged, marked, weighed, or otherwise identified will not be accepted by any court. Original photographs shall be substituted for any photographically enlarged exhibits. A court, in its discretion, may order a photograph substituted for large or bulky exhibits which might pose a storage problem. A court, in its discretion, may admit any exhibit in the interest of justice.

Prior to the final determination of an action or proceeding, as defined in Penal Code section 1417.1, only attorneys of record and court employees may view the exhibits. All other interested persons must obtain an order of the court. Viewing shall take place in the presence of an exhibit custodian. Exhibits may not be altered or taken apart, except by court order. Special viewing equipment will not be permitted, except by court order.

Attorneys, investigators, law enforcement agencies, and other interested parties may seek temporary release of exhibits for copying or laboratory testing. A stipulation and court order is required in all instances, except a stipulation is not required in civil cases. The party seeking the release must present the original signed stipulation and order and a copy to the exhibit custodian. The order must include the case number, names of the parties, name and telephone number of the person to whom the exhibits are to be released, a description of the exhibits, and the date the exhibits are to be returned.

Exhibits in a criminal matter may be released for use in a civil action brought by the victim of the crime. To obtain such exhibits, the party in the civil action must submit a stipulation signed by the prosecutor and criminal defense counsel (including appellate counsel if applicable), a declaration, and an order signed by the judge. The stipulation shall bear the criminal case caption and number, and reference the civil case by name and number.

Unless specifically ordered by the court, all exhibits marked, identified and/or admitted into evidence in a civil case should be retrieved by the offering party at the conclusion of trial. The party introducing the exhibit shall be responsible for maintaining and preserving that exhibit pending any post verdict proceedings and appeals, until there is a final disposition of the action or proceeding. All exhibit tags and other identifying markings or information concerning each exhibit shall remain in place and shall not be disturbed. Each exhibit shall remain intact and in the same condition as during trial. In the event further proceedings of any court having jurisdiction of the matter require the presence of any exhibit, the party introducing the exhibit shall promptly deliver the exhibit to the court, with notice to all parties.
